

Vocabulary Treasure Hunt

For families with children at nursery and primary-school age levels

Children and their parents embark on a “Vocabulary Treasure Hunt” backed by words, signs, stories and pictures, arts and crafts, listening to exciting tales and joining in activities that simply make learning fun.

Just come along – We are always delighted to welcome new parents and children!

Even if you would like to gain more confidence in language practice and learning to write –for example if German does not happen to be your native language.

Parents can actively support their children’s learning progress. YOU are the first and most important teacher – the best example your child will ever have!

Vocabulary Treasure Hunt

For families with children at nursery
and primary-school age levels

Children and their parents embark on a “Vocabulary Treasure Hunt” backed by
words, signs, stories and pictures, arts and crafts, listening to exciting tales and joining
in activities that simply make learning fun.

Just come along – We are always
delighted to welcome new parents and children!

Even if you would like to gain more
confidence in language practice and learning
to write –for example if German does not happen to be your native language.

Parents can actively support their children’s learning progress. YOU are the first and most important teacher – the best example your child will ever have!

Vocabulary Treasure Hunt

For families with children at nursery
and primary-school age levels

Children and their parents embark on a “Vocabulary Treasure Hunt” backed by
words, signs, stories and pictures, arts and crafts, listening to exciting tales and joining
in activities that simply make learning fun.

Just come along – We are always
delighted to welcome new parents and children!

Even if you would like to gain more
confidence in language practice and learning
to write –for example if German does not happen to be your native language.

Parents can actively support their children’s learning progress. YOU are the first and most important teacher – the best example your child will ever have!